

When Times are Hard

Money close and the demand for loans about three times as large as we can supply, it is natural that, in case one of our regular depositors needs an accommodation he should be favored first—his interests cared for.

Why not protect YOUR future interests by opening an account with us NOW—the amount of your first deposit is not so material as the fact that you become one of our customers.

Mrs. CHARLES ELTING.

Winter is here at last and the snow makes it look more like Christmas than Thanksgiving. Our boys are home from camp and what are in France are reported well. How many things we have to be thankful for this year.

J. F. Gulick and wife returned from Kansas City Thursday. They went up Monday and attended the Royal Stock Show.

Chas. Elting and wife called on Chas. Nett and wife Wednesday.

Vida Wydick and daughter visited Wednesday with her parents.

Chas. Nett's brother, Frank, from northwestern Kansas is here. He and Chas. motored to Bartlesville, Okla.

John Pfander has completed a nice addition to his barn. He is building this to use as a cow stable. It will be remembered that John lost almost his entire herd of jerseys by a disease that has puzzled the entire country, but John was not going to consider himself beaten and a few days ago bought nine more jerseys to start a new herd. We wish him better luck this time.

Mr. Kincaid lost a valuable driving mare last week.

Will Moser has some sick cattle. Dr. Houser was called.

J. F. Gulick and family spent Sunday with John Pfander and wife.

Several from our community attended Mr. Shriver's funeral. Mr. Shriver was 71 years old and has been in poor health for the past six months.

Ross Farr and family called on Chas. Smith and wife Sunday.

Guy Chapman has been quite ill with the influenza. The family have all had it, but it hurt Guy the most. All are now better.

Mrs. J. F. Gulick spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Chas. Elting.

Wesley Cline of Jasper visited in the country Wednesday.

John Buzzard and wife were Jasper shoppers Thursday.

Link Milton and wife called on Mrs. W. R. Farr Sunday evening.

Walter Wood is home from camp and was a school visitor Wednesday.

Chas. Elting and wife and Miss Hawthorne called on Claude Hamilton and family east of Jasper Sunday.

George Moser and wife called on home folks Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wardlow called on Mrs. Osborn Thursday.

SHERIDAN NEWS.

Mrs. Roy Carter spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Tom Patterson.

Mrs. Emery Tiller and daughter, Mrs. David McNary, spent Friday with Mrs. Oscar Faskin.

Ernest McConnell and wife are the proud parents of another big boy.

Mrs. Chas. McClintock and Miss Leola McClintock spent Thursday with Basil McClintock and family.

Mrs. Lloyd Winder and daughter Pauline called on Mrs. Nellie Harris one evening last week.

Homer Wampler and family visited at W. H. Lukens' of Carthage Sunday.

Charley McClintock and wife and Will McClintock and family were in Carthage Saturday.

Mrs. Roy Boucher and children returned to Kansas City Monday morning after a three weeks' stay with Mrs. Nellie Harris.

Sheridan School has been closed a week on account of the teacher being troubled with rheumatism.

Gus Campbell and family visited at Hamp Campbell's Sunday afternoon.

Ed Davis and family are moving to their new home, which he lately bought near Carthage.

Lloyd Winder and wife were in Carthage Monday evening.

Chas. Suellens and family spent Sunday at Charley Stith's.

Mrs. Joy Kerney and children called at Will McClintock's Sunday evening.

BLUE STAR.

Mrs. MYRTLE COINER.

Charley Livingston and wife and son George are visiting in our neighborhood.

The soldier boys who got furloughs and came home last week were Guy Serafine, Joe Cruza, Con Lucas, Walter Wood and Ernest Yates.

John Yates and family took dinner Thursday with Will Wood and family.

Will Wood and family of Lynnland and Jesse Kelley and wife spent Sunday with Charley Hanes and wife.
